No matter what business you're in,
you likely need photography to promote it, maintain your social media presence, and fill out your portfolio. But what about when you've got that part covered and you're still searching for what will set you and your brand apart from everyone else in your field - or better yet - what will show off what you already have that will set you apart? Your voice, your expressions, your client's joyful expressions, movement, and compelling music can come together to make your clients feel like they know you - and in turn, make them truly see why you're worth it.

In the market for something different, something you haven't seen from us before, or something different than what is outlined in our base package? Let's talk. These films are completely customizable.

other info //

// for photographers - Models for you to "pretend" to shoot during your session will be your responsibility to obtain and schedule [though they're never hard to find, most people are more than willing to do it if they get a free photo session with you out of the deal!]

// Once your total is decided upon based on the needs of your film, you will be invoiced for a deposit of 50% of the total. This deposit is due on or before the date we schedule to film you. The balance is due upon delivery of your film[s]. Your film will be delivered privately, and will be made public and shareable once we get the "okay" from you and your balance has been received. We are happy to devise a more customized payment plan with you should that become necessary.

// Once your filming session is officially booked, you will be added to the end of our editing list, even if your session has not taken place yet. Depending on how many weddings films we have left on the list, this could be anywhere from 12-24 weeks of a delivery window for your film. To be fair to all of our clients, we prefer to edit films in the order that we shoot them, and try to discourage cutsies whenever possible. If rush delivery is necessary for your needs, you can cut the line for a $500 fee.

// Your film does not have to include audio of you speaking, but we do feel strongly that this is one of the things that sets a film apart from a photo, and deepens your potential clients' connection with you. If you've got stage fright, we would be delighted to walk you through what you'll say and how to say it, it's our specialty.

thank you for considering us for your cinematography needs.
